

# DAHAMEMBERSHIP

WHAT IS DAHA MEMBERSHIP

Our membership model is designed to enable you to invest in DAHA's development, allowing you to be a part of our pioneering work to transform the housing sector's response to domestic abuse.

By becoming a DAHA member, not only will you gain access to a wealth of resources but you will join a national network of housing providers coming together to effect meaningful change in tackling domestic abuse, and will help shape our policy and lobbying efforts.

DAHA membership is unique to the sector. Not only is it the first of its kind, but the first housing membership body which recognises the need to create a space to look specifically at domestic abuse.

WHY JOIN DAHA AS A MEMBER?

To make a stand

Reduce the human cost of domestic abuse by working together to respond effectively and support survivors

To be inspired

Access a wealth of best practice resources and expert advice through our Toolkits and newsletters, and member-only webinars and events.

To be rewarded

Get discounts on our training and become accredited (if you choose to do so).

To get connected

Influence national policy and share best practice at our DAHA regional groups and Members forum.

WHY NOW?

There are many exciting developments happening in the domestic abuse sector right now, including big changes to government legislation.

Becoming a DAHA member will help you navigate and understand these changes.
