

STADV ASSOCIATE (freelance)

Job Title:	STADV Associate
Responsible to:	DHR & Team Development Manager
Payment:	To be agreed
Working Hours:	Variable
Work Location:	Based at home or at the office of Standing Together Against Domestic Violence or agreed venue

JOB PURPOSE

STADV is looking for skilled and experienced domestic abuse experts to widen our pool of associates to help with chairing or report writing for domestic homicide reviews. The chair is responsible for managing and co-ordinating the review process and for producing the final overview report based on individual management reviews, chronologies and any other evidence the review panel decides is relevant.

When shortlisting a chair, consideration will be given to the skills and expertise required to effectively chair a review.

The following are guidelines of what is needed:

- relevant knowledge of domestic violence issues including 'honour'-based violence, research, guidance and legislation relating to adults and children, including the Equality Act 2010
- an understanding of the role and context of the main agencies likely to be involved in the review
- managerial expertise
- good investigative, interviewing and communication skills
- an understanding of the discipline regimes within participating agencies
- the completion of the Home Office e-learning training package on domestic homicide reviews, including the additional modules on chairing reviews and producing overview reports

Duties and commitments will vary depending on the needs of the STADV DHR team and volume of DHRs being commissioned. Payment is typically made on a daily rate or in some cases for project at an agreed sum. An availability of at least 10 days per year equating to around one DHR per year is required.

STADV values diversity, promotes equality and challenges discrimination. We encourage and welcome applications from people of all backgrounds. We particularly welcome applicants from black minority and ethnic communities.

To apply, please email your CV and a covering letter to admin@standingtogether.org.uk by 5pm, Wednesday 31st October 2018. Initial telephone conversations will take place in November 2018.
